The Ver. records shew
that Chennegowda & Simmegowda, residing at the village of Mangalavarpete at Chenn-
-pratna in the Chosepet Taluk, purchased a certain Shatamanya Inam land situated in the said Mangalavarpete from one Appramaiengar of Mallur in the Chenna-
-pratna Sub Taluk,
that out of the aforesaid Shatamanyam Inam
land they (Chennegowda & Simmegowda) gave
as gift a portion measuring

" - 7-2
and valued at Rs 100

to the temple of Akshaya-mēyaswami at Mallur and that they accordingly executed
a deed of gift (duly registered) on a proper stamp paper of one Rupee in favor of the temple, stating therein
that they have given
the said portion of the land to the temple on account of Kaudadeva
every day before the goddess in this name.

2. Their deposition
and petition addressed to the Dy Amildar is here
that they have given
Sthalamanyam Inam
land to the temple for the services of the daily Kaudadeva before
the goddess and also for

 that they themselves would cultivate the land & pray to the temple regularly Rs. 10-8-11 per annum on account of the above service on the ground that the other persons might pray a smaller amount if they cultivate the land that they should be sent for on the day in which Thunkamarchane is to be done in their name that this Archane or service should be done in their presence, that Sheertha & Prasada
 should be offered to them on that day and that the Govt. authorities should see that these services are done regularly in the temple.

3. The Correspondence

correspondence further shows that they have paid already on advance of Rs. 9/ on account of the daily Nandadeepa and that the said service
has already been commenced in the temple.

4. The present question is as follows: —

(1) As they have agreed to cultivate the land
themselves and to pay to the temple a sum of Rs. 10-8-0 per annum regularly, they should execute another document, viz, a lease,
in favor of the temple
on a proper stamp
paper (vide clause
(4) of article 39 ^{Schedule F 82} of the Genl. Stamp Act of 1879) to the effect
that they ^{their} descendants in succession would

would continue to cultivate the land
themselves and pay to the temple regularly
Rs. 10-8-¹² per annum.

(2) As the land given
by them is a ozhata - manyam Imam land,
quit-rent, viz, one
cannce has been imposed thereon in the Imam

Memo (continued)

The lease (duly stamped & registered) dated 12th Feby/91 & executed by Chennigowda and Simmigowda in favor of the temple of Apparamiaswami at Mallur, shows that they have agreed to cultivate the Ozhata-mangam Inam land given by them to the temple and to pray to the temple every year regularly in advance a rent of Rs. 10-8-0 during their life time, that they would pray also to Govt. regularly every year the amount of Dist. Rent & Local ceps, viz. Rs. 0-2-0 per annum payable on the ^{said} Inam land and that they have stated that after their death their heirs also might do the same and that if they (heirs) fail to do so, the temple authorities might
